

Itinerary

Nashville's Opryland Resort is going all out for its 28th anniversary of "A Country Christmas"! Zillions of lights, miles of ribbon, garland and poinsettias, one of the U.S.'s largest nativities plus the famed Radio City Music Hall Rockettes will be dancing their legs off!

DAY 1: Happy Holidays! Put that leftover turkey and dressing in the freezer and head for Tennessee! Watch the Texas scenery roll by and, before you know it, you'll be sitting down to a sumptuous "Welcome Dinner" in Arkansas and resting easy at the Best Western Inn Hope. (D)

Day 2: A Country Christmas. Late this afternoon you'll check into the Opryland Resort, the world's largest (and the most Holiday decorated) hotel under one roof outside Las Vegas. Relax with three enchanting nights in this 5*Star resort.

Tonight, see the Radio City Rockettes in "A Christmas Spectacular". They will thrill you with the "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" and amaze you with a "Living Nativity Scene"! It is a fantastic production that is sure to be the highlight of your Opryland vacation! (B,D)

Day 3: Magical Christmas Dinner. This morning you'll tour Music City and see the homes of the stars, Nashville's historic downtown, Ryman Auditorium and more. Visit the new Country Music Hall of Fame. Shaped like a musical note, the $35-million museum showcases 74 stars that have been elected to the Hall.

Lunch aboard the General Jackson Showboat is a real Holiday treat! Tim Watson dishes up "Now That's A Country Christmas" on the General Jackson, the world's largest showboat. It is over 300-feet long with four massive decks. Imagine! A Christmas luncheon and humorous show all on the scenic Cumberland River.

Tonight, you have reserved seats for a family-style dinner in the Gaylord Opryland Ballroom. You'll enjoy the new Lorrie Morgan's Holiday Dinner Show, filled with lots of Lorrie's top hits, Christmas music and good food. (B,L,D)

Day 4: Magical Musical Christmas. A leisurely day at Opryland. You have tickets for "Treasures of the Holiday Crafts and Antique Fair" in the Ryman Exhibit Hall of the hotel. See Tennessee craftspeople
