

It is a monster ship, but the Oasis of the Seas (sister ship to the Allure) will give you the time of your life! Both of these maritime marvels from Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines reinvent cruising. The Oasis is the destination! So, pack your bags and get ready to be blown away on the wonderful Oasis of the Seas!

DAY 1: Florida Bound. Fly to Fort Lauderdale, arriving at the Ramada Inn in the afternoon.

DAY 2: Caribbean Bound. At noon you'll board the awesome Oasis of the Seas. This 220,000-gross ton megaship never feels too big or too crowded because Royal Caribbean built it into neighborhoods. Enjoy the serenity of Central Park. Discover the fantastic Boardwalk Neighborhood. The Oasis boasts 24 dining options, so there is no excuse not to eat. Most are free. There are spectacular aqua shows, ice shows, Las Vegas-styled shows and theme parades in the 400-ft. long Royal Promenade! It's like entertainment in a big city! (L,D)

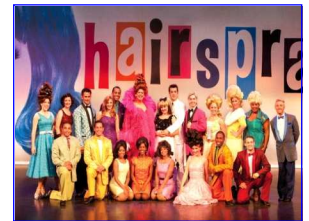

DAY 3: Nassau, Bahamas! For many years, Nassau was a home base for notorious pirates, and it was burned to the ground by the Spanish three different times. Today, it's a wonderful place for duty-free shopping, elegant dining and exciting water sports. (B,L,D)

DAY 4: At Sea. Get to know the marvelous Oasis. Casino Royale has over 450 slots with lots of penny machines. See Broadway's hit musical, "Hairspray" and aerial dance spectacular, "Come Fly With Me" at the Opal Theatre and "Oasis of Dreams" at the Aqua Theatre. "Frozen in Time" plays at the Studio B ice rink! You can't help but smile during Dreamworks Parade with Shrek, the green ogre and the Madagascar Penguins! (B,L,D)

DAY 5: St. Thomas. Known today as an idyllic vacation spot, St. Thomas' history was not so peaceful. In the 18th century, the island was at the center of a bustling pirate culture with swashbuckling pirates such as Blackbeard and Drake trading stolen wares in the port of Charlotte Amalie. This world-renowned U.S. Caribbean isle is home to amazing beaches, gorgeous sea and landscapes and duty-free shopping! (B,L,D)

Easy, relaxing and fun cruise

DAY 6: St. Maarten. When the Spanish closed their fort on St. Maarten in 1648, a few Dutch and French soldiers hid on the island and decided to share it. The Netherlands and France signed a formal agreement to split St. Maarten in half. Philipsburg displays its Dutch heritage in its architecture and landscaping coupled with beach and great shopping. (B,L,D)

DAYS 7-8: At Sea. Relax! Enjoy dining in the Windjammer buffet or the Park Café. There's even a Starbuck's coffee shop on board! Feeling adventurous? Zip Line over the Boardwalk, test your surfing skill in the FlowRiders or play a round of miniature golf. (B,L,D)

DAY 9: Remarkable! Arrive home feeling refreshed, but wondering, "Did I see and do everything on the Oasis?" That's what happens when the ship is the destination! It's like a whole city at sea! (B)
