

Itinerary

Sail the Carnival Conquest's Eastern itinerary from Galveston. You'll cross the Gulf of Mexico to the American tropics of Key West, then on to Freeport and Nassau in the Bahamas. The Conquest calls on some of the Caribbean's most prized ports boasting superb sightseeing, sensational duty-free shopping and wonderful water sports! What are you waiting for? This cruise sells out in a hurry!

DAY 1: Caribbean Bound. Enjoy a relaxing ride in a roomy Rockport Tours' coach to the Port of Galveston. There will be a "stretch-your-legs" break along the way.

Arrive Galveston and board the 110,000-gross ton Carnival Conquest, your home for the next seven nights. Settle in with lunch and a sumptuous dinner as the ship slips silently into the Gulf of Mexico. See the "Welcome Aboard" show! (L,D)

DAY 2: Fun at Sea! This relaxing day allows you to get acquainted with your floating resort. The Conquest features several dining stations, including a 24-hour pizza parlor. At night you'll rave about the lavish musical and comedy productions in the Toulouse Lautrec Lounge and the hot casino action in the Tahiti Casino. (B,L,D)

DAY 3: Key West, FL. The "Conch Republic" is a festive island of colorful characters in America's tropics. The U.S.'s southernmost tip is where Harry Truman spent his summers playing poker and running the country. Visit Earnest Hemingway's house where you'll find his original manuscripts and many of his famed six-toed cats. And while you're on the island be sure to sample conch salad and the world-famous Key Lime pie. (B,L,D)

DAY 4: Freeport, Bahamas. A sportsman's paradise with endless opportunities for snorkeling, sailing, scuba diving, Freeport features one of the most impressive golf courses in the world. If shopping is your sport you're sure to score big at the duty-free shops, where you can find excellent deals on cameras, watches, porcelain and fine jewelry. Or you can just kick back and enjoy the sun on one of the many gorgeous, white-sand beaches that abound. (B,L,D)
