Get in touch with your inner Texan! Start by walking along the Guadalupe River, shopping at the Market Days, or having lunch.

Gruene is designated as a "Historic Town" by the state of Texas. Pronounced like the color "green," the little town is located on the banks of the serene Guadalupe River and offers delightful shops, dining, shopping, wine shops, and more.

Of course, the reason everyone came to Gruene in the first place is Gruene Hall. Step inside and back in time to the oldest, continually operating dancehall in the state. Enjoy the free concert and an ice-cold Shiner Bach!
