

YOUR ITINERARY

Experience the beauty of spring as you journey through the heart of Georgia during Macon's famous Cherry Blossom Festival. While nature ultimately decides exactly when the cherry trees bloom each year, these dates have been carefully selected to give us the very best opportunity to experience Macon's breathtaking display of thousands of pink Yoshino cherry trees at their peak. Along the way, discover historic landmarks, Southern hospitality, legendary music history, and unforgettable Southern charm.

March 20: Travel from Texas to Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where you'll check into your hotel for the evening and relax before continuing eastward the next morning.

March 21: Continue to Macon, Georgia, and check into the Hilton Garden Inn Macon/Mercer University. This evening, experience the famous Cherry Blossom Festival, where Macon transforms into a sea of pink blooms, festive entertainment, and lively food vendors celebrating the city's title as the "Cherry Blossom Capital of the World."

March 22: After breakfast, enjoy a guided Historic Macon and Cherry Blossom Riding Tour featuring the city's rich history and stunning floral displays. Visit the magnificent St. Joseph Catholic Church, known for its breathtaking architecture, followed by a special organ concert at Mulberry Street United Methodist Church, beautifully decorated with spring flowers. Enjoy lunch at Ocmulgee Brewpub before touring the elegant Hay House, one of the South's finest historic mansions. Later, visit the historic Douglass Theatre before enjoying a Southern barbecue dinner at Satterfield's Barbecue.

March 23: This morning, step into Macon's legendary music scene with visits to Capricorn Sound Studios & Museum and the Allman Brothers Band Museum at The Big House, celebrating the roots of Southern rock. Explore Civil War history at the historic Cannonball House before enjoying a delicious seafood lunch at Kudzu Seafood Company. This evening, experience a truly memorable finale at the historic The Grand Opera House with an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour, catered dinner on stage, and a live musical performance.

March 24: Depart Georgia and return to Baton Rouge for an overnight stay. This evening, enjoy a buffet dinner at the elegant White Oak Estate & Gardens before relaxing for the evening.

March 25: After breakfast, begin your journey home, bringing back wonderful memories of blooming cherry trees, Southern charm, historic treasures, and unforgettable music and culture.
